Dear Recruiter,

I am writing to express my strong desire in a pupillage opportunity at Blagogee, Blacksword & Co. As a dedicated individual with passion for legal research and a keen interest in broadening my horizon in legal knowledge, experience and practice, I am excited about the prospect of contributing to your esteemed firm.

I am particularly drawn to the firm because of its core values of building high-calibre professionals who are diligent, honest, transparent and strive for excellence, as well as the practice areas of the firm. As a young advocate, I am desirous of learning and evolving in legal practice particularly to combat issues of the present legal dispensation such as issues of litigation, asset tracing and debt recovery, corporate and commercial practice, energy law, construction and real estate law and the needs of private clients.

During the various internships I have had, I had the opportunity to work independently as well as with other persons in completing various tasks; be it researching for a presentation, drafting processes for court or simple tasks such as coordination of meetings. I ensure to put in my best efforts to achieving the goal of the team and client satisfaction, which is aligned with the values of your firm.

I look forward to an enlightening journey of contribution to your esteemed firm and a robust learning experience from the professionals at the firm. Thank you for considering my application.

Best regards,

Tracy Eyram Tatanku Abudey
